

Research Now and friends raise money for Cathy Marlow Charity, Cancer Research UK

London, 10th May 2007: Research Now hosted a charity pub quiz last night in memory of colleague, Cathy Marlow. The night, attended by staff, friends and family of Cathy raised in excess of £1,600 for charity Cancer Research UK. Overall, there were 22 teams of competitors vying for the title of quiz champions. As well as the quiz, one of the highlights of the evening was a charity raffle. Among the more unusual (and popular!) prizes from this included a day's holiday for one staff member and the purchase of CEO Chris Havemann's services as "slave for a day".

The event was the first of a series of fundraising events being held by Research Now, the next being a big 80's themed party on Cathy's birthday in July.

The organisers wish to thank all who attended and /or contributed to the fundraising for what was a memorable evening that Cathy would have been proud of.
